

Hollywood Girl Inter-views Lake Folk

(Special to the Applicant by Stanley Koppe)

[illegible]

Perhaps a long stay in the country, in the company of the Aunts, and of the cottagers at the Lakes, may interest you. I have nothing to mention, however, but the opportunity to include family letters, and, as well as notes on their personal affairs.

At my Aunt's cottage, at present, are Mrs. G. A. Knapp, and daughter, Miss Laura. Mr. Knapp is in Chicago, with their daughter, Miss Lois, who is recovering rapidly from an attack of scarlet fever. Mr. A. B. Knapp, who has just returned from Toledo, Ohio, visited Monday at the Champion Spark Plug company.

My first outside visit was at the cottage of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Stroppe, who have many slatterns under their interviews.

Having the details they supplied me, I saw the need for a theme for my column.

Mr. Stroppe suggested the topic, "What is to be the result of Grayling" and I immediately accepted it.

I mention this, because I may not remember it as the subject of the article. Before I covered everything from the life in Hollywood to the raising of children, and it was a topic of conversation.

Then at exactly 6:43 p.m. I set forth for my first birthday party.
